Dear Sir

When staying at Washington last winter at Wormley's Hotel I had occasion to visit the Corcoran Art Gallery, & being struck with the beauty of some of the works of art displayed therein I ordered and payed for in advance some photos (unmounted) which the gentleman ~~at~~ at the door who sold these photographs promised to send round to my hotel as he had none unmounted with him - Amongst them were 2 of the 'Greek Slave' by Powers, & one of a picture of a dog in a Snowstorm -

I mention this as it may occur to his memory of when I ordered the photographs, as he may have forgotten the circumstance. Hornby's Hotel have not received them so far as I know as I wrote to them shortly afterwards -

Would you mind letting me know whether they have been sent or not, & if they have been sent off, to what address, for having brought home many interesting mementoes of your country I am loth to leave these behind -

My address is 1 Sussex Square London W - I am

Faithfully Yours

Dear Sir

I am the possesor of two life size busts in marble. one of Geo Washington - and one of Benj Franklin both from the studio of the late Hiram Powers. the figures are pronounced by competent judges, to be the finest in conception & finish. & the exact likeness in feature & expression now in existence. I have a few gentlemen now resident in Washington - among whom I may mention Genl John Newton U.S. Engineer - Hon Daniel Manning Secy Treasury - Col D.S. Lamont Secy to Pres't Cleveland -

I trust you may favor me with ~~an~~ inspection which I feel assured will more than repay any commendation I can express.

Very truly Yours

concluded to dispose of them and think they would be a most valuable acquisition to your exhibit of Statuary - It is not necessary for me to allude to the deserved reputation which the late Hiram Powers enjoyed as a Sculptor - I believe you have copy of his Greek slave now in the Corcoran Gallery - as you may have a representative present at the Sale of the Leney paintings - in my city - I would be much pleased to exhibit the figures for inspection to any person you may designate - I am
